Certificate IV in Community Services

Australian Qualifications Training Framework Approved (AQTF)

“Knowing yourself is the beginning of all wisdom”
Aristotle

While earning your Certificate IV in Community Services you will have the opportunity to also improve and expand the quality of your own life. This certification allows you to provide a range of services and counselling interventions to clients. You will be able to work with individuals and groups. Past graduates work in a variety of settings including private practice, community-based organizations, schools, residential rehabilitation, and outreach services.

The entire training program is presented in large and small group format, delivered by experts with over 25 years experience facilitating groups and providing training in counselling techniques. You will begin to be able to facilitate others in the following techniques; gestalt processes, NLP processes, role-playing, using props, body movement, music and drawing to elicit emotion, Rogerian Person Centered Therapy, Inner Child Work, Body Work principles and techniques, and Creative Visualization.

This is an Introductory Course and an overview of all the above will be taught. A more in depth understanding of all these processes are covered in the Diploma and Advanced Diploma.

Some pre-requisite courses are required prior to enrollment.
