Professional Group Facilitator Training combined with a fascinating Personal Journey of Self-Discovery

“Nothing liberates our greatness like the desire to help, the desire to serve.” - Marianne Williamson

Who is this training for?

Many people who attend are either new or experienced counsellors looking for improved methods of working with clients. Others are excited about breaking through their own limitations and achieving a greater quality of life for themselves. The unique structure of this course provides opportunities to achieve both outcomes.

Facilitator Training participants will gain an overview of:

- Group facilitation skills
- Practical, hands on tools to create the life you desire for yourself, your clients, and others
- Principles and techniques of counselling

- Gestalt Therapy principles
- Links between past and present, mind, body and emotion
